

PSYCHIC PREDICTS `DOG THE BOUNTY HUNTER' WILL END UP IN THE BIG HOUSE

TORONTO (Wireless Flash) -- Duane `Dog' Chapman may have screwed the pooch by using racial slurs, but a Toronto-based psychic believes Dog is the one who's really screwed.

Anthony Carr -- known as the "World's Most Documented Psychic" -- believes The Bounty Hunter's recent racist tirade against his son's African American girlfriend, Monique Shinnery, will cost Dog his fame, fortune, and freedom.

Back in June 2006, Carr made a prediction about Dog in his book "Stargazer: Predictions & Prophecies" (White Knight), which claimed: "The Bounty Hunter will suffer a terrible breakdown due to financial and legal woes. He will go berserk and end up back in the big house."

Now, with Dog tail-deep in the doghouse, Carr says he won't be surprised if his prediction comes into fruition.

Carr says, "Dog is going down -- he's finished. I don't see him working in television or showbiz ever again, no matter what. He's committed the ultimate faux pas and truly screwed the pooch."

Carr believes Dog's troubles are a result of "bad karma" associated with his work as a bounty hunter, and says if Dog ends up in the slammer, he'll have some rough run-ins with his "friends" that he's helped put behind bars.
